THE MASAI MARA

Day 1-4 | Nairobi - Masai Mara

The Masai Mara, known for its rolling hills, vast savannahs, and dramatic river crossings, is a haven for wildlife and adventure. Home to the iconic Great Migration from July to October, it welcomes 1.5 million wildebeests each year. The reserve and surrounding conservancies teem with diverse wildlife and offer travellers an array of activities. Luxurious safari lodges complement this breathtaking landscape, making the Masai Mara a must-visit destination for an unforgettable African experience.

ACCOMMODATION AT MASAI MARA

Your 1st 4 nights will be spent either at Mara Toto Tree Camp or Mara Nyika Camp

Mara Toto Tree Camp

Mara Toto Tree Camp, nestled in the Maasai Mara National Reserve, is ideal for experiencing the famed annual migrations. This tranquil, private safari camp accommodates up to 8 guests in four luxurious treetop suites. Crafted from canvas and wood on elevated decks, the suites feature spacious living areas.

Mara Nyika Camp

Mara Nyika Camp, meaning “Large Plains,” is an intimate Réserve-Collection safari camp set in Kenya’s private 20,000-hectare Naboisho Conservancy. Its raised canvas suites sit under umbrella-thorn trees along a small river, offering stunning views of the plains.

THE MASAI MARA

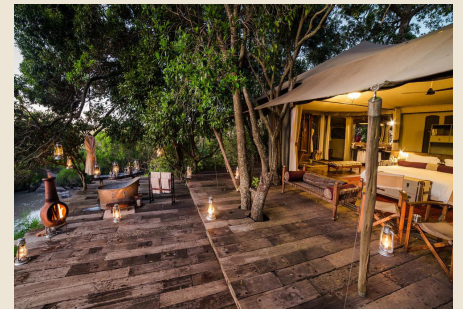

Day 5-9 | Transfer to second camp of choice

After your morning safari excursion and breakfast, you will be transferred either by land or light aircraft to your 2nd safari experience at either ol Donyo or Mara Plains Camp.

2ND ACCOMMODATION

Mara Plains Camp

Mara Plains Camp, a unique luxury safari camp in Kenya, is set in the private 13,300-hectare Olare Motorogi Conservancy on the Maasai Mara’s northern boundary. This intimate Réserve-Collection camp offers exceptional wildlife viewing, top-tier hospitality, and expert guiding. The camp features five luxury suites for two guests each and the exclusive Jahazi Suite, accommodating up to four guests.

ol Donyo Lodge

ol Donyo Lodge, a Great Plains Conservation Réserve-Collection camp, is nestled in Kenya’s Chyulu Hills on 111,000 hectares of private Maasai-owned land. Situated between Tsavo and Amboseli National Parks, the lodge combines contemporary design with Maasai culture, offering breathtaking views of East Africa’s savannahs.
