TSWALU – KALAHARI

Day 1-5 | Cape Town – Tswalu

Tswalu, spanning 115,000 hectares on the edge of the Kalahari, offers exclusive, privately guided safaris in South Africa's largest privately protected space. This conservation-focused reserve boasts diverse habitats, blending true Kalahari and arid savannah ecosystems, and is home to over 80 mammal species. Guests enjoy personalised experiences with each booking having your own guide, tracker, and game vehicle at your disposal during your visit. Highlights include exceptional dining, sleeping under the stars bed suites, and the freedom to explore this unique wilderness at your own pace.

ACCOMMODATION AT TSWALU

Your Tswalu adventure begins in one of three safari camps, the Motse, Tarkuni homestead or one of Loapi's luxury tented homes.

The Motse

Is where it all started. Nine spacious legae (Setswana for 'home') are private retreats for two or four guests, making these suites ideal for couples or small families.

Tarkuni

A thatched homestead tucked into a secluded valley, accommodates up to 10 guests in five bedrooms. Designed for exclusive use, it is perfect for large group of friends or family. Evoking the spirit of camping.

Loapi

A luxury tented camp with six, individual, tented safari homes for the ultimate private wilderness experience. At all three camps, a private safari vehicle, guide and tracker is guaranteed with each booking. Your guide and tracker will take excellent care of you for the duration of your stay, arranging every aspect of your safari at a pace that allows for an unhurried, immersive journey of discovery into the southern Kalahari's rare and unusual treasures, from iconic wildlife to rock engravings.

SABI SANDS NATURE RESERVE

Day 6-9 | Tswalu – Sabi Sands Reserve

Considered by many to be Southern Africa's premier wildlife destination and renowned globally for the incredible Big 5 sightings, Sabi Sands Nature Reserve is a testament to the vision of its founders who recognized the value in preserving this wonderful wilderness.

Covering 65,000 hectares and sharing a 50-kilometre unfenced boundary with the Kruger National Park, Sabi Sands offers some of the most prolific sightings of the magnificent Leopard and the opportunity to observe them in their natural environment. Luxury lodges abound and each offers its own definition of authentic South African hospitality and comfort.

ACCOMMODATION AT SABI SANDS

&Beyond Tengile River Lodge

Tengile, meaning "tranquil," offers 9 secluded suites along the Sand River, combining privacy with exceptional wildlife interactions, including renowned leopard sightings and abundant Big 5 encounters. Strict vehicle limits at sightings ensure relaxed, rewarding game drives.

The thoughtfully designed lodge features private and interactive spaces for ultimate guest comfort, complemented by a talented kitchen team providing imaginative, dietary-inclusive meals.

Londolozi Tree Camp

Meaning “protector of all living things” in Zulu, this family-owned reserve embodies a pioneering spirit, offering one of the world’s most treasured wildlife experiences. In 1993, Londolozi became the first game reserve to achieve Relais & Châteaux status, with its luxurious Safari Camps combining experiential luxury and the stunning beauty of the Sabi Sand Reserve.

Singita Ebony or Boulders Lodge

Since 1993, Singita has become synonymous with intimate safari experiences, blending a passion for conservation with exceptional hospitality. Its lodges offer luxurious accommodations for couples and families, designed to complement the natural landscape with spaces for relaxation and wildlife viewing. Expert ranger and tracker teams provide guests with unforgettable, close-up encounters with diverse and magnificent wildlife.
